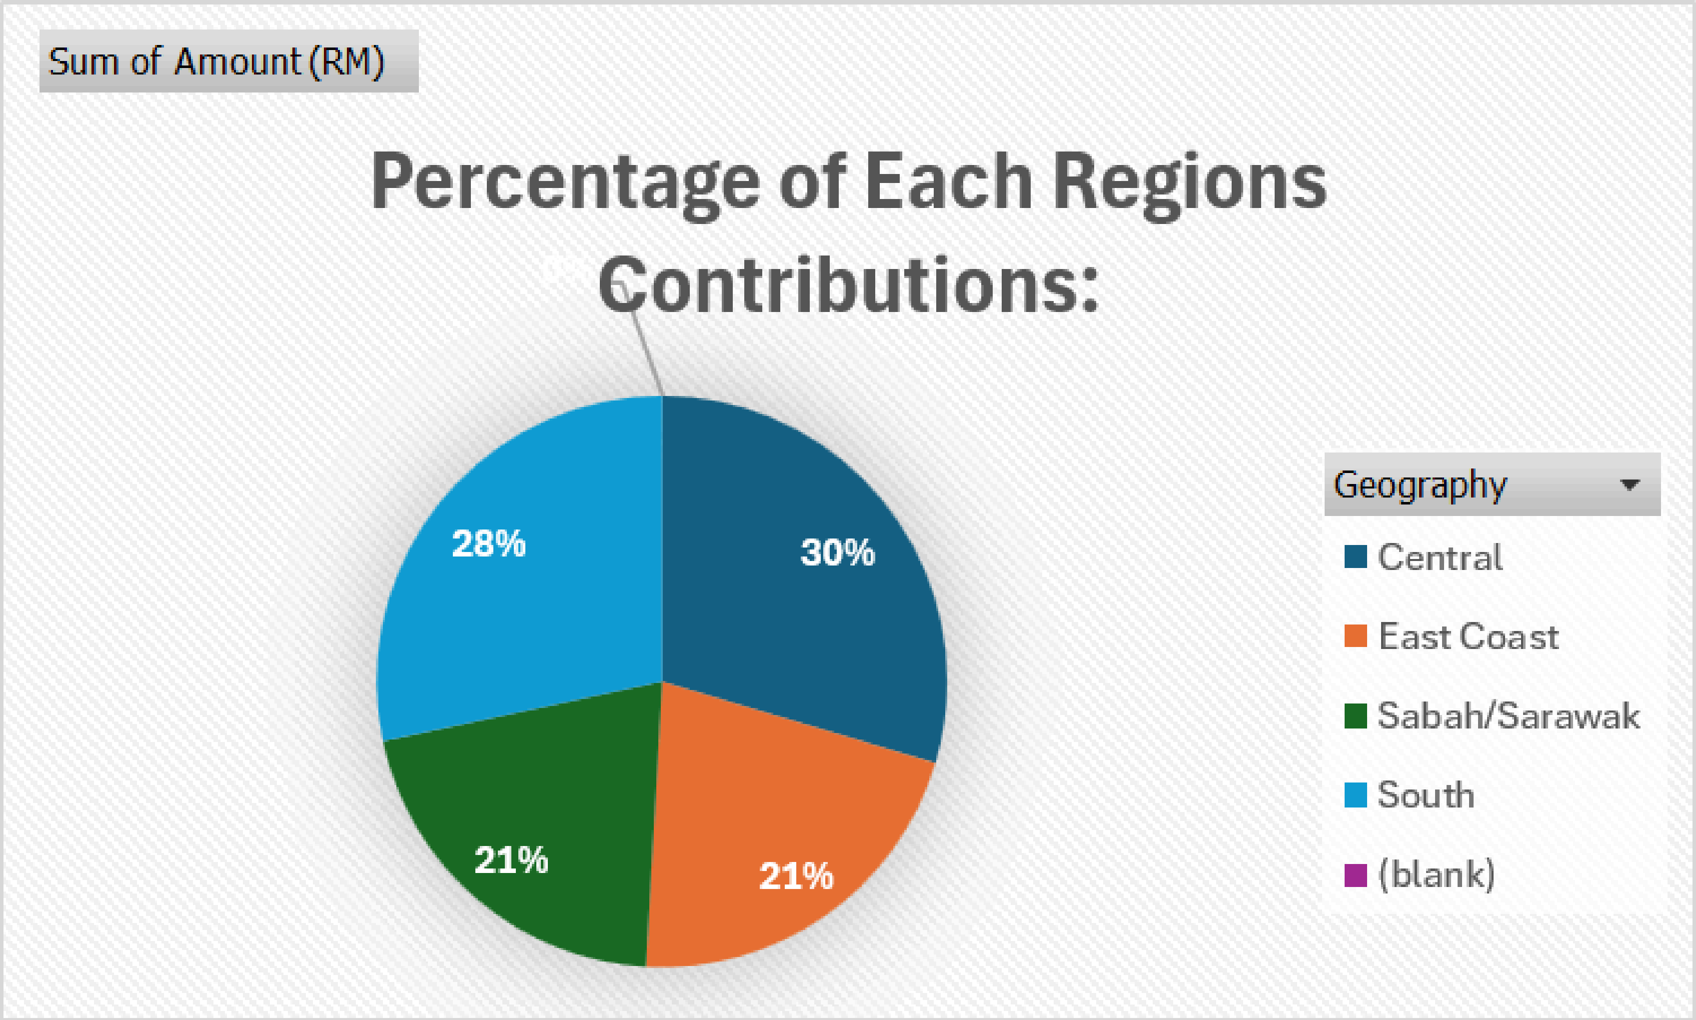
GRAB SALES REPORT DATA ANALYSIS REPORT

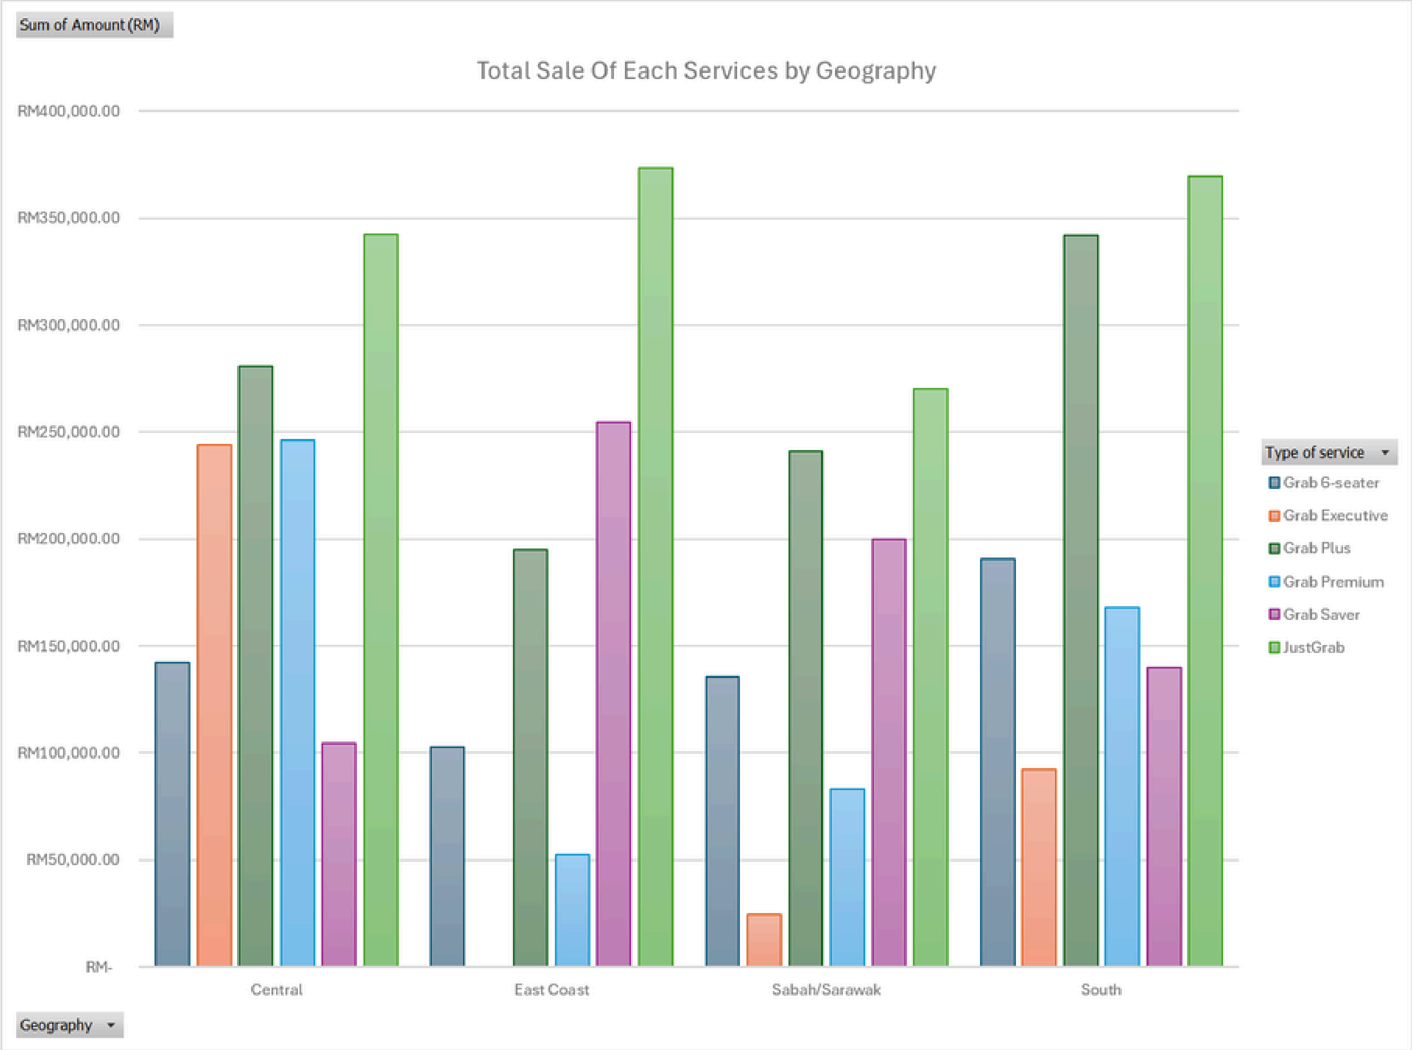
Presented by #########

INTRODUCTION

This analysis tracks Grab’s revenue across regions from Q1 2022 to Q2 2024 to highlight high-performing services, emerging growth areas, and segments needing business support.

WHAT WE HAVE:
Overall Data





The Central (30%) and South (28%) regions serve as the primary revenue drivers, while the East Coast (21%) and Sabah/Sarawak (21%) contribute equally to provide a stable balance across the remaining markets.

JustGrab and Grab Plus consistently drive the highest revenue across all regions, while premium services like Grab Executive and Grab Premium are heavily concentrated in the Central and South regions with minimal to zero adoption in the East Coast and Sabah/Sarawak.

WHAT WE HAVE:
By services data

High-Value Services

- JustGrab: Broadest appeal; revenue is evenly distributed across all four regions (roughly 20–28% each).
- Grab Plus: Strongly driven by the South (~32% of its revenue) and Central (~26%) regions.

Mid-Value Services with Regional Variance

- Grab Saver: Dominated by the East Coast (~36%) and Sabah/Sarawak (~28%); low adoption in Central.
- Grab Premium: Highly reliant on the Central region (~45%); sees less than 10% of its business in the East Coast.
- Grab 6-seater: Fairly balanced across regions, with the South holding a slight lead (~33%).

Lowest-Volume Service

- Grab Executive: Almost entirely dependent on the Central region (~68% of its total volume), with 0% from the East Coast.

SO WHAT NOW?

WE HAVE ALL THIS INFORMATION, WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

RECOMMENDATION 1

Scale High-Margin Premium Offerings in Central & South

- Focus on premium services in Central and South, where demand is growing.
- Shift marketing from Grab Saver to Executive and Premium.
- Incentivise drivers to upgrade to premium vehicle tiers.

RECOMMENDATION 2

Reposition or Phase Out Underperforming Services

- Reduce focus on Grab Saver and 6-Seater.
- Limit them to peak periods and high-demand areas.
- Phase out Grab Saver where needed.

RECOMMENDATION 3

Implement a Premium-Focused Revival Strategy for Sabah/Sarawak

- Stop competing on price in Sabah/Sarawak.
- Rebrand our local presence to focus on reliability, comfort, and luxury.
- Incentivize drivers to upgrade to Grab Plus or Premium vehicle tiers to capture the remaining high-value customer base that is actively spending money.
